

About us

You and me together,
I hope it's forever.
I don't want to lose you
And I hope you think that, too.
Because I'm in love.

I know it's not always easy,
Just in my fantasy.
But we get through it,
Talk about not just a bit.
And we trust.

Every moment I think of you
And I hope that it comes true,
That you'll be here, by my side,
A blanket we divide
And watch the slowly sunset.

I love our movie night
And sleeping by your side.
I love to get hugged and get kissed,
That is what I really missed,
But soon we meet.

There are good and bad days,
But we find ways.
We texting each other
And I don't want another.
I just want you.
